CAUCUS OF DEMOCRATS.

Resolutions Adopted by a Well Attended Meeting.

MR. CRISP'S ADVICE TO MEMBERS

Rules Committee Report Fixing Closure
For Jan. 25 Urged For Adoption and the Duty of Absent Members Defined.
Chairman Wilson Satisfied—Proceedings in the House—National Topics.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The Democratic caucus met in the hall of the house of representatives at 8 o'clock last night to consider the Wilson tariff bill. There was a good attendance. Although the rollcall showed only 124 members present, many came in later and it was estimated that there were 147 Democrats in attendance when proceedings began. There are 216 Democrats in the house and a caucus quorum is 108. The attendance indicated that in the neighborhood of 40 who are in the city remained away.

It was decided to limit speeches to five minutes. General Wheeler, one of the prime movers in the caucus project, made a vigorous speech against the proposition to place iron ore on the free list.

Speaker Crisp followed. He offered a resolution declaring that it was the duty of every Democrat to vote for the consideration of the tariff bill, and also that it was their duty to maintain a quorum until the bill is disposed of. In a ringing speech the speaker took occasion to reprimand Democrats who had been responsible for the inaction of the house during the last three days. No member would lose any of his rights, and it would be to the honor and credit of the party to go forward and legislate. The party had been given a commission from the people and it was its duty to carry it out. The spectacle of the past three days had been a disgrace to the large Democratic majority, and he sincerely hoped that it was not to be repeated. The words of the speaker were loudly cheered.

General Sickles of New York, in replying to speaker, declared that it was no part of the duty of any Democrat to vote for the consideration of a revenue bill, some of the features of which had not yet been reported by the committee. He directed his assault chiefly against the proposition for an income tax, which he declared undemocratic, unpopular, impolitic.

Mr. Sperry of Connecticut followed in the same line, justifying his course in refusing to vote on practically the same grounds. He carefully avoided mention of the tobacco schedule, which is understood to be the chief ground of his objection to the Wilson bill.

Resolutions Adopted.

After further debate these resolutions were adopted without a division:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this caucus that it is the duty of every Democratic member of the house to vote for the pending resolution providing for the consideration of the tariff bill, in order that the house may have an opportunity to redeem the pledges of the party respecting tariff reform.

Resolved, further, that it is the duty of every Democratic member of the house to attend its daily sessions, and we hereby express the opinion that those members who are absent owe to the party and to those who are here to immediately return in order that pressing public business may be attended to.

Another resolution was adopted, that it is the sense of this caucus that if a proposition for an income tax was reported from the committee that two days additional should be given for debate.

After this Mr. Harter of Ohio and Mr. Robertson of Louisiana introduced amendments providing for a duty on sugar, but before a vote was had on either of the amendments Chairman Holman recognized Mr. Black of Georgia to move an adjournment. The motion was carried with a rush and at 10 o'clock the caucus adjourned.

After the adjournment Chairman Wilson of ways and means committee said the caucus was entirely satisfactory to him. "It has shown that the great Democratic heart is beating for the people," he said. "The resolutions passed express the sense of the party in the house."

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

The Majority Again Unable to Muster a Quorum.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The power of the committee on rules was invoked yesterday to break down the obstruction in the path of the tariff debate. An ironical order was brought in setting out the programme for the tariff debate and fixing Jan. 25 as the day for taking the final vote. This resulted only in sidetracking Mr. Boutelle and his Hawaiian resolution, which he loudly insisted upon calling up at the opening, as when the vote came to be taken on the adoption of the order the Democrats lacked nine votes of a quorum. At least 20 Democrats at the capital either absented themselves from the hall or refused to answer to their names when called. For four hours the Democratic members tried with various other tactics to bring their men into line, but instead of gaining they lost votes on each successive rollcall. The Populists, with the exception of Mr. Bell (Colo.), also declined to aid the Democrats, giving as their reason the short limit proposed on the debate. Their votes would have made up a quorum. The proceedings were, therefore, of additional importance as making the first time in the history of either branch of congress since the organization of the third party that its members have held the balance of power.

Those Who Failed to Vote.

It was on the demand for the previous question on the adoption of the report of the committee on rules that the Repulicans declined to vote, and on the first vote several Democrats remained mute. Among these were Messrs. Sperry (Conn.), Haines (N. Y.), Robertson (La.) and Ryan (N. Y.). That vote showed nine less than a quorum, and notwithstanding that some other members came in during the afternoon the Democrats on no successive rollcall came so near reaching the required number. Mr. Sperry not only declined to vote, but busied himself in asking other Democrats to refrain. On one or more of the subsequent rollcalls these representatives refused to answer: Messrs. Cadmus (N. J.), Coombs and Sickles (N. Y.), English (N. J.) and Sibley (Pa.). It becoming manifest that a majority quorum could not be secured, the house adjourned late in the afternoon.

INJURED WHILE HUNTING.

Reversal of Decision in a Pension Case Famous in the Department.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—An important pension decision, which will have the effect to reverse a large number of decisions made during the Harrison administration has been rendered by Assistant Secretary Reynolds of the interior department. The case under consideration was that of James E. Harrison of Company M, Third Iowa cavalry. The principal question involved is that of "line of duty."

Previous to the last administration it had been held in a long line of decisions that where a soldier received a disability while absent from his command, acting for himself or for his own pleasure and benefit, he was not entitled to pension. But under Commissioners Tanner and Raum this rule was largely broken.

Harrison's case is famous in department annals. Originally put on the rolls, his name was dropped in 1877 on evidence that Harrison received his wound, a shot in the arm, while hunting deer. Harrison took four appeals, and finally in 1882 his pension was restored, and he received $1,631 in a lump as back pension. Assistant Secretary Bussey held that while the hunting was not necessary, the craving for fresh meat was justifiable and the injury warranted pensioning.

Republican Tariff Opposition.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Representative Burrows outlines the parliamentary attitude of the Republicans in opposition to progress on the tariff bill as a positive step in opposition to the Wilson bill. "No exact plan of opposition has been determined," he says, "as the lines will have to be shaped to each forward movement of the friends of the bill as it develops. For the present the failure to vote is a protest against the unjust rule which the majority seeks to pass by which general debate is limited to five days. The rule, if passed, will practically limit the general debate on this great measure to three days of next week."

Indiana Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Indiana postmasters have been named as follows: J. B. French, Bear Branch; William Danner, Olin.

Abram Orr of Kendallville, after an exciting contest, has declined the office now that it is within his reach. He has offered no explanation.

Ransell Ready to Let Go.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Marshal D. M. Ransell, who has been spending the holidays in Indianapolis, has returned. He does not expect to hold on to the office a week or so longer, and when his successor is appointed will return to Indianapolis, where his family is.

Mrs. Cockrell Seriously Ill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Mrs. F. M. Cockrell, wife of Senator Cockrell of Missouri is so seriously ill with pneumonia that she is not expected to recover. The disease was contracted on the occasion of her daughter's debut on Wednesday of last week.

What the Beer Tax Yields.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The table showing collections from the tax on beer for the fiscal year 1892-93 shows total collections during the year of $31,962,743.

ROMANCE OF AN ORPHAN.

Richmond and Later Adopted She is Now Made an Heiress.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Jan. 6.—From a little pauper kidnaped by an avaricious uncle to a pretty heiress with a clear title to a $100,000 fortune, is the romantic story of Miss Caroline C. Sankey. Her legal title to her rights has been fought in three states and yesterday the supreme court of Illinois ended the matter and the girl wins. In 1878 Samuel Sankey came to this county from California, where he had made a fortune dealing in hides. He and his wife were grieving over the death of their only child and while visiting relatives here he saw little Caroline Sankey, then 8 years old. She was an orphan and was cared for by friends. Samuel Sankey wanted to adopt the child, but her relatives objected on the ground that his mind was unsound. He stole her and took her to Wisconsin, and returning here she was restored. To compromise he legally adopted the girl. Mrs. Sankey died and in 1886 he expired, leaving a will disinheriting Caroline, who had gone to live with the family of Charles Coggins of San Francisco because she had been abused by her fosterfather. Then relatives in this vicinity began a fight for the property. The California courts decided Sankey's will was invalid because he was crazy, and the Pennsylvania courts later sustained that opinion. He had property in Illinois, and finally the case came into the supreme court there, which decided that the girl is entitled to the estate.

Cause For Excitement.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—Reports that Captain Landy and 26 men, sent out to chastise Sofias who have been giving trouble to British traders on the coast near French territory, have been shot and killed by French troops has excited military and political circles.

HAS A CLASH OCCURRED?

Return of the Corwin Surrounded by Mystery.

NAVAL CIRCLES GREATLY EXCITED.

News From Hawaii, Based Principally on Rumors, Is of a More Sensational Kind. How the Tidings by Way of Auckland Were Received in Washington—Stirring Times Expected.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 6.—The United States cutter Corwin, on her return from Honolulu, whither she went a month ago with instructions to Minister Willis, anchored off Fort Point and sent dispatches ashore. Her commander absolutely refused to communicate with reporters.

The only thing in the way of news is a statement said to have been made by a sailor on the Corwin to a reporter who tried to board the vessel and was repulsed that "There has been a big row down there." The statement is not verified at all in any other way.

The regular messenger of the Merchant's Exchange, who had put off in a small boat as soon as the cutter was sighted, made an attempt to board her at the entrance of the harbor. Captain Munger shouted at him roughly from the bridge, and not only refused to give him any information but also refused to permit his boat to come alongside the cutter.

A few miles further up the bay the Corwin sent an officer ashore in a small boat and proceeded toward Mare Island. The small revenue tug Hartley started after the Corwin as soon as she entered the harbor. The tug went alongside and offered her services, but Captain Munger informed the commander of the Hartley that there was no service she could perform for him and refused to allow anyone aboard.

Naval Circles Excited by Reason of Late Rumors.

VALLEJO, Cal., Jan. 6.—The rumor is abroad in naval circles, where for some time there has been unusual activity, that the Corwin was detained in Honolulu two days after the Alameda left and that it is more than probable a clash has occurred. This is the opinion of the naval officer, who thinks the mission of the Corwin is to tell the tale of the rejection of Cleveland's proposition by the provisional government. There is also a statement that the Corwin has returned for marines and will at once start back to Honolulu.

At the marine barracks excitement was at fever pitch when it was said that the Corwin came for the detachment of marines. It was learned at the marine barracks that the total available strength of armament force on the navy yard was nearly 700, and that if required 400 sailors and 150 marines could be sent within 24 hours. It is thought the Corwin has steamed up Oakland creek.

RUMORS FROM HAWAII.

They Create Interest, Doubt and Wild Stories in the Capital.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The Associated Press cable from Auckland announcing that Minister Willis had notified the provisional government to retire, as the queen had agreed to grant amnesty, has been the absorbing topic in congressional circles. "Word came from the state department to the foreign affairs committee, but as no mention was made of the minister's reported action the information was doubted by the committee members. Chairman McCready said it would give most startling turn to the situation if it proved true. Representative Hitt, Republican leader of the committee, said that if Minister Willis had taken the action reported it would precipitate a tempest and that it would be particularly serious if the minister's action had led to bloodshed.

There is intense anxiety in congressional circles for further news on the reported course of the minister and it led to the circulation of wild and groundless rumors that fighting has begun in the streets of Honolulu.

The state department is not inclined to credit the statement. Such action, it is said, is totally contrary to the instructions sent to Mr. Willis by the Corwin and received by him Dec. 11. That he could have so acted after he received those instructions is denied with strong emphasis, and the expressions in the president's message in this connection are pointed to as refuting the statement. The setting afloat of such a report in Honolulu is attributed to a malign purpose.

The statements contained in the dispatch seemed to cause no uneasiness or excitement at the Hawaiian legation. They are not inclined to believe any further steps have been taken to restore the queen.

Looks Bad For Coughlin.

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—A new witness named Frank Bardeen, of greater intelligence than a majority introduced in the Coughlin case, testifies to having seen the accused on the night of the Cronin murder as the wagon in question went by the electric light works where he was standing. Coughlin tried to hide, but he had known him for two years and recognized him plainly.

Better Than a Rainmaker.

TOPEKA, Jan. 6.—A discovery just made in Ford and adjoining counties will be of incalculable value to the farmers of that section. It has been fully demonstrated that a large body of artesian water flows under the whole section, requiring only an opening to permit it to gush out to the surface in great abundance.

DUN'S REVIEW.

His Statement Regarding the Business Situation at Present.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—R. G. Dun & Co's weekly review of trade says today:

It is questionable whether the working force in the great industries has increased as yet, though about the first of the year considerable increase was expected. The number of mills starting and stopping work is about the same. Sales of wool for the week amount to only 2,494,800 pounds, against 4,453,200 for the corresponding week last year, and since May 1 the decrease has been 49.6 per cent. Prices are somewhat weaker and few works report satisfactory orders. Prices on cotton goods are further reduced to encourage purchases. Most of the shoe shops are moderately employed. Still lower prices are recorded in iron and steel without increase in volume of business. The volume of business represented by exchanges outside New York is 18.2 per cent less than for the same week last year.

The final classified returns of failures for 1893 are not yet complete, but the reports received from the latter part of December have swelled the aggregate of commercial liabilities to $328,498,461, of which $167,545,985 are of manufacturing failures, $123,716,960 of trading failures and $17,235,516 of other concerns. For the past week the failures reported have been 511 in the United States, against 323 last year, and 41 in Canada, against 17 last year.

Bradstreet's Report.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Bradstreet's report today says: General trade throughout the country has been of somewhat smaller volume than last week, but the return of commercial travelers to the road is reported from nearly all points. Resumption of work in industrial lines are very numerous, more than twice as many factories and mills having started up within the week as have shut down, but reductions of wages in industrial lines continue very numerous in establishments which remain at work.

DETERMINED SHERIFF.

He Declares That the Big Fight Shall Not Occur in Duval County.

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 6.—Sheriff Broward declares that the Duval club people are mistaken if they think he will stand quietly by and allow the fight to occur in Duval county. "I tell you," said the sheriff, "that the fight will not take place in Duval county if I can stop it, and I think I can get men enough to assist me in preventing it."

He is a man of nerve and will not hesitate to shoot in the discharge of his duty. It is reported that the club will select Anastasia island, opposite to St. Augustine, where Mitchell is now training, as the scene of the contest.

Certain of Pugnacity.

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 6.—So certain are the members of the Duval Athletic club that the Corbett-Mitchell fight will be pulled off in this city that another gang of men have been put to work on the arena, which is now over half completed.

MAD BULL IN THE STREETS.

Panic and Injuries in Louisville Stopped by a One-Armed Man.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 6.—A mad bull broke loose from a man leading him on Floyd street yesterday and ran amuck, creating quite a panic. Mrs. Anna Goldstein, 60 years of age, was struck by the animal's horns and tossed into the air, falling heavily on her side. She will probably die. Three men were also knocked down in vain attempts to stop the bull's mad flight.

A one-armed man named William Egan, by his courage and presence of mind, undoubtedly saved a number of children's lives who were playing in the street at the time. As the bull ran at him he adroitly jumped aside and caught the rope tied to its horns. He was dragged across the street, where he wrapped the rope around a tree and held on for dear life until help arrived and the animal was securely tied.

USED ROTTEN TIMBERS.

Damaging Testimony in the Louisville Bridge Disaster Inquest.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 6.—In the bridge disaster inquest Jerry Williams, an employee, gave testimony damaging to the company. He said that last July he and a number of men had rolled planks to the bridge, and many of them were so rotten that they broke in two. He noticed some of the rotten timber in the false work in December. Counsel subjected the witness to an hour's cross-examination, but he persisted that at least two of the rotten pieces had been used as lock braces under the span that fell. Superintendent Millikan testified that 20 minutes before the accident his attention was called to the track being out of line, which indicated that the false work was settling, but he was not apprehensive of danger and no steps were taken to withdraw the men.

PECULIARLY SHOCKING ACCIDENT.

Horse and Young Lady Rider Fall on Streetcar Tracks—Ground to Death.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 6.—Late yesterday afternoon Miss Nettie Edenhorn of this city met a peculiarly horrible death. While riding on horseback near Park and Compton avenues her horse frightened at an electric car and shied, falling itself and throwing the young lady under the wheels of a streetcar which at that point was going down a heavy grade. Both horse and rider were horribly ground under the wheels, the young lady dying almost before taken from under the car. The horse was also killed.

MAY RECOVER DEPOSITS.

Judge Baker's Ruling In an Indianapolis Bank Case.

TO ACCEPT THE CASH WAS FRAUD.

Capital City's Major Indignant on Account of an Insurrection That He Had Not Kept Promises to Unemployed Laborers—Another Candidate For Congress—State News In General.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 6.—In the federal court yesterday Judge Baker decided on a demurrer an important case in the Indianapolis National bank failure, in the suit of H. P. Wasson against the receiver to recover money and checks deposited on the day before the bank closed.

Judge Baker, reciting the case, says that the plaintiff was a depositor for years in the bank; that President Hankey was the active manager, and that the cashier and directors exercised merely nominal or clerical functions; that on July 21 the bank was utterly and hopelessly insolvent and unable to continue in business for a single day longer, which fact was fully known to the president; that the complainant was ignorant of the fact that the bank was insolvent, and in danger of insolvency, he would not have deposited any sum of money; that the president of the bank knew that the plaintiff believed the bank solvent, and that he would not have deposited money therein unless he had so believed, and that the president fraudulently concealed from the plaintiff the condition of the bank.

The court further recites that the president did not warn the plaintiff of the bank's insolvency, and that on July 24, 1893, within less than five minutes of the hour for closing the bank, the complainant deposited $1,642.50 in money and $504.24 in checks, all of which were received as cash and so credited to complainant; that the bank thereafter never opened for business; that the money thus deposited was not paid out, but remained in the bank until the appointment of the defendant as receiver, and the checks were collected by the bank and held as money by the bank.

The reception of the money under such circumstances was a fraud upon the plaintiff, and entitled him to rescind the transactions and recover his deposit. The keeping of the bank open constituted representation, through its customers, of the solvency of the bank, upon which they had the right to rely, and if the bank was known to be insolvent by the officers who were charged with its management the concealment of that fact from a person about to make a deposit would constitute a fraud upon him. The depositor could therefore bring suit to recover his deposit without any previous demand.

The mere fact that the plaintiff became a creditor of the insolvent bank through the fraud of its president, and that the bank became a trustee ex maleficio would give him no right to preference over other creditors, unless he can trace and identify his money as a part of the common mass. But when it is shown by indubitable proofs, or is admitted, as in the present case, then the identical bank notes and coins so obtained by fraud constitute a part of the common mass of bank notes and coins in the hands of the receiver, in my judgment the modern and better doctrine is that the depositor may take out of the common mass so much as he put in.

The attorney for the receiver states that the ruling is not so far reaching as many will suppose, and that no other case in which the contest is identical has been filed. The case now resolves upon a question of fact.

Unemployed and the Mayor.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 6.—The unemployed are flocking about the courthouse basement in greater numbers each day, and the demand for work is growing much stronger than at any time during the season. A committee from Thursday night's meeting called on Mayor Denny in the afternoon, when one of its members asserted that the officer was not keeping promises. The mayor at once asserted that he was doing everything in his power, that the city had no money left, and that he could do nothing more.

The matter was dropped and when the committee retired the member circulated the report in the corridor that he had been insulted by the mayor. When this fact was stated to the officer he went among the men and told his accuser that he was stirring up strife by circulating a false report.

EVANSVILLE, Jan. 6.—Two delegations of trainmen, one from the Louisville, Evansville and St. Louis road and the other from the Peoria, Decatur and Evansville were here yesterday demanding a readjustment of their salaries. NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Another wife of W. H. Grimm, the Brooklyn bigamist and the enthusiastic young exhorter arrested recently in Fort Wayne, has announced herself. She signs her name as "Miss May Batley, Bluffs, Ill." It appears that Grimm married her a short time after he married and deserted Miss Whitaker of Quincy, Ills.

Miss Batley makes the fourth that has come to the front. Mrs. Turnbull, the young Plymouth church widow whom Grimm married Oct. 18 last, found among the bigamist's papers a letter from a friend in Quincy, Ills., begging him to persuade Miss Whitaker to get a divorce, because, thinking she was dead, he had married a girl in Bluffs. Grimm was before Judge Moore in the court of sessions yesterday. He begged for more time before sentence was passed. He said he hoped to be able to show that he deserved light punishment.

The democrats in congress can hardly be censured for not wanting to pass the Wilson bill.

Democratic wood piles hereabouts are growing with wonderful rapidity. They are industriously sawing.

THE BANNER TIMES didn't print that prayer for the especial delectation of the Star-Press. It seems to have struck the organ rather hard.

It is said that Chairman Wilson, who has made such a failure of his tariff bill, will resign. He is sore and disgusted at the way his measure has been jumped on, both by the people and the press. He has said: "For nine months I have worked night and day upon this matter until I am utterly worn out, and now I look around for support and assistance and get only abuse and misrepresentation. I am tired of it."

As editor, commenting on the general misfit of things terrestrial, vents his feelings in the following language: "Heaven-born orators are carrying the hod, athletes are preaching the gospel, and brilliant writers are shoeing horses. There are lawyers who ought to be cow punchers, and cow punchers who ought to be sawing wood, and wood cutters who ought to be sawing bones. There are men in the penitentiary who ought to be holding positions of trust, and men holding positions of trust who ought to be in the penitentiary." He should have added that there are editors, especially in Greencastle, who should do less scissoring and more hustling.

The reduction of salaries in DePauw university is but another straw to show the effects of the political change in this country. It has not been many years ago that nearly all professors in DePauw and kindred universities were republicans and firm believers in principles that did then, and would now if in effect, tend to build up the industries of the country. But of late years there has been a change here, as in many other universities. It has been a matter of surprise that college men, to a preponderating extent, have become free traders, many of them prohibitionists, and in some cases they have gone bodily to the populist party. They have a perfect right to make these changes, it cannot be contradicted, but it is in the line of natural events that mistakes invariably come back home. A consequent reduction is thus necessary. If there were more voting of good, sound republican doctrine, the world over, by college men, there would be less of reduction of salaries for college men. There has been a general reduction all around, however, since the awful mistake of the 1892 election, and many a poor man, to whom a ten per cent. cut on $1.50 per day means more than that much sliced off a $2500 salary, can bear witness to this fact. Free tradeism and one-idea partyism are false lights to chase these remarkable times. Let there be a general getting back into the republican ranks and then salaries will begin to climb.

The finances of DePauw university would be in better condition today had republicanism instead of democracy and third partyism prevailed last year, and it's a costly lesson for the future. There's no doubt of it.

As usual this year the democratic papers are sans argument. The caustic criticism of the BANNER TIMES of Saturday's unenthusiastic convention and the hypocritical and misleading statements made by leading speakers brought forth no logical reply from the two Saturday trailers today. An argument is not a part or parcel of a democrat these days. By the way, what has become of that old chestnut, "the tariff is a tax?" We don't hear it any more. Where is it "at." It might be brought out from its hiding place and dusted off by our local democratic papers. It will make a filler and will prove about as effective as such weak-kneed jabs as they put forth at present.

The republicans of the south precinct of the second ward of Greencastle will meet this evening at G. C. Moore's office to select a member of the county central committee.

The republicans of the north precinct of the first ward will meet in the mayor's office on Monday night to select a committeeman.

The republicans of the west precinct of the third ward are requested to meet at Browning's marble shop, BANNER TIMES building, at 7:30 p. m., Saturday, January 6, for the purpose of electing a member of the county central committee.

JOHN C. BROWNING,
Committeeman.

REPUBLICANS ALIVE.

Greencastle Republicans in the Push—Club to be Formed at Once.

A few type-written circulars sent through the mails yesterday caused a large number of enthusiastic republicans to assemble at the mayor's office last night. The purpose of the meeting was to talk, and while several plans were laid out and put under way, the expression of confidence and the activity displayed were the best features. It was a genuine love feast, and the speeches were hearty and brilliant. Republicans are determined this year to win, and there is an awakening this early in the campaign that is stronger than at any time during the late lamented unpleasantness. Republicanism is in the air, and the speeches of Messrs. Moore, Birch, Case, Hays, Bridges, Waggoner, Ashton, Lloyd, Denny, Robe, Hays and Meltzer were rousers and full of encouragement.

It was decided to organize a club, and a special meeting on next Wednesday evening, January 10, will be held in the mayor's office to that end. Tell your republican neighbor and his friend and pack the hall.

EXPLOSION AT A POWDER MILL.

Entire Number on the Floor, Five in All, Killed or Injured.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Jan. 6.—By carelessness on the part of employees at work in Laddin & Rand's powder mill, an explosion took place in the main building, and all on the floor were killed or injured. The dead are Gardiner, Solomon Freiderburgh, Jos. Sanders and Kipp. The accident was caused by the overturning of a lantern into a bin where an explosive was stored.

The College Avenue Revival.

In answer to the request of our reporter Dr. Town said: "It is hard to give a definite report of results attending the recent protracted meeting. It was in effect a union meeting of all the churches and people of our town. Not that any other shared responsibility for its beginning or its conduct or its expense, but that all in large numbers accepted our sincere and cordial invitation to participate in the battle and the spoil. During the progress I said little about joining the church for that reason and it is probable that we shall not add many more names to our membership, than some of our neighbor churches will add, as a result of the meeting. I think that perhaps 55 per cent. of the 200 persons who knelt at the altar for prayer and confessed conversion, were already members of some of the churches of the town who had never been converted, or else had lost the evidence of their acceptance with God."

In this class I believe that every church was represented. Of the others, quite half were students who preferred to join church at home during their holiday vacation. For more than forty to our membership as the direct fruit of the meeting. Yet for its indirect results which I foresee in certain lines, I do not hesitate to believe it will prove the most productive of good of any meeting that I have ever worked in. There are very many Christians who will never cease to bless the day that Mr. and Mrs. Frame came to Greencastle, of whom count me one."

The Soldiers' Monument.

The soldiers' monument in Forest Hill cemetery is cracked and needs repairs. The G. A. R. Post took action on the matter last evening.

pairs as soon as possible. A committee will make examination today to that end. It has been the impression with some that the county had assisted in the building of it, but the idea is incorrect. The monument is one of the grandest in the state and its repairs will be a matter of city pride. Col. J. R. Mahan, whose funeral occurred this afternoon, was at the head of movement to build the structure, and did much to secure its success.

A COMPROMISE EFFECTED.

The Nelson Litigation Comes to a Sudden Halt—The Agreement.

There will be no further litigation in the Nelson case. Since the return home on Saturday of the attorneys, who went to the eastern cities, some interesting work has been accomplished, and on yesterday a compromise was reached, which is, of course, satisfactory to both sides. The contest at law, it will be remembered, was titled Eliza J. Brannon Nelson vs. Franklin P. Nelson and James U. Edwards, assignee of Franklin P. Nelson, on note and to foreclose on first mortgage on real estate of F. P. Nelson, amount of which claimed to be due, including attorney's fees, about $37,000. Mr. F. P. Nelson, in his assignment, had conveyed to the assignee about 2200 acres of land and the residence property in this city, on the corner of Arlington and Seminary streets. Mrs. Nelson had been paid on her claim before the making of the assignment it is stated about $18,000.

Under the terms of the settlement Mrs. Nelson conveys her interest in the 2200 acres of land to the assignee, and she in turn gets the family residence on Seminary and Arlington streets and retains the $18,000 that had already been paid to her by her husband. The mortgage and suit are thus to be satisfied and cancelled. The effect of the settlement is that the creditors get the 2200 acres of land free from the $35,000 mortgage and free from Mrs. Nelson's inchoate interest in the same 2200 acres of land, which is all situated in Putnam and Parke counties. J. B. Nelson retains what had been deeded to him.

In a talk with several of the creditors they express satisfaction at the outcome of the case, and the settlement of what bid fair to be a complex lot of litigation.

There was quite an array of legal talent in the suit. The plaintiff's attorneys are Messrs. J. P. Allee, J. B. Nelson, D. E. Williamson, C. C. Matson, and George Knight, of Brazil. The defendants were represented by Messrs. S. A. Hays, J. J. Smiley, W. G. Neff and J. H. James.

A Seat Volume.

In Mr. Pfriemmer's neat little volume of poems, "Driftwood," presented to DePauw's representatives in the recent intercollegiate debate, the following quotations seem, in view of his complimentary decision, very apropos:

"I don't down on education; But too many of our schools, Under the present system, Is a manufacturer's fools."

"But to keep my conclusions In a bundle, plain and neat— There's too much cheat and cockle A-growin' among the wheat."

"Some fellows have a natural way O' sayin' what they hev to say; That 'pears like it ain't any chore To tell ye all they know—an' more; While others kind o' sort o' balk, Or stick an' mire, when they talk, Gitt tangled up in their own tow An' can't get rid o' what they know."

NEW YORK WORLD.—W. R. Houghton has compiled the perfect record of that memorable conference.
LEWIS STUDEBAKER, Commissioner of the World's Columbian Exposition.—I believe that the Parliament of Religions will result in bringing religious denominations closer together.
RABBI ALEX. H. GEISMAR, New York.—Two features of this magnificent Exposition pre-eminently type the progress of the century—the electrical display and the Congress of Religions. Unity is the text of both. Electricity brings earth's ends into mental unity, the Congress points earth's spiritual unity in human brotherhood and Divine fatherhood.

A. O. U. W.

A. A. Anderson, Grand Master Workman of Pennsylvania—Chips.

Bro. Anderson was born in Glasgow, Scotland, Oct. 14, 1835, and received a common school education. On May 21, 1873, he became a member of Alleghany lodge, No. 34, of Alleghany City, and is now and has always remained a member of that lodge. He was elected a representative to the grand lodge in 1882 and re-elected for eight successive years. He was elected grand guide Jan. 10, 1888, chairman of special committee on degree of honor in 1889, installed grand over-seer Feb. 27, 1890, and grand foreman on Oct. 14, 1891, and two days later was made sole nominee for grand master workman, in which office he was installed at the recent session of the Pennsylvania grand lodge.

The order is being vigorously pushed in Delaware. New lodges are being instituted all over the state.

Nebraska in 1888 had but 5 assessments. Manitoba had 6 for 1893.

Grand Recorder McNair reports 21 lodges organized in the Pennsylvania jurisdiction since Jan. 1, 1892, viz.—9 in Pennsylvania and 12 in West Virginia.

A junior workman has three months from the time of his election to membership in which to receive the workman degree.

The receipts of the Massachusetts grand lodge for September and October were $12,454 in the beneficiary fund and the payments $26,000 leaving a balance Nov. 1 of $20,057.

Assessment 13 for 1893 has been levied for December upon 34 deaths, of which 18 were in Massachusetts, 4 in Connecticut and 2 in Maine. This is assessment 140.

ODD FELLOWS.

New Order Formed by an Expelled Member—Notes and Gossip.

An expelled Odd Fellow of the state of Illinois has formed a lodge in Erie under the name of the "Mystic Circle" and is trying to imitate the workings of the order in the minutest details, and he is endeavoring to induce Odd Fellows to join this Mystic Circle that he has started.

Star of Bethlehem lodge, Philadelphia, is one of those lodges which does not believe in sealing benefits. It pays $7 sick benefits each week continuously and has paid one brother over 12 years.

The semi-centennial of the organization of Hampton lodge of Springfield, Mass., occurs Feb. 7. A committee has been appointed to prepare a programme for a suitable celebration of the event.

West Virginia has 123 lodges and 8,365 members. Increase for the year, 783 members.

Not less than 15 members, called Chevaliers, can organize a canton.

All cantons shall be numbered in consecutive order, according to the date of organization, and not less than nine members shall constitute a quorum.

An amendment to the laws of the order is pending in the sovereign grand lodge tending toward making the minimum rate to be charged for initiating and conferring the three degrees upon a candidate $20. Action will be taken thereon next year.

Under the jurisdiction of the grand lodge of Massachusetts there are 247 lodges and 19,988 members. This embraces Victoria, New South Wales, South Australia, New Zealand and Tasmania.

Statistics prove that liabilities of lodges increase as they grow older. This shows the necessity of carefully studying the report of the sovereign grand lodge committee on dues and benefits.

There are 26 encampments and 1,237 patri-archs in West Virginia.

The only French lodge of Odd Fellows in the city of Chicago is Rochambeau, No. 532. It was instituted about 18 years ago and has a membership of 65.

In less than one year the Odd Fellows of Wisconsin raised the funds, secured the buildings and had in operation a home where 50 orphans are sheltered.

Any past grand who is a member of the encampment and attained the royal purple degree and the grand lodge degree may witness the proceedings of the sovereign grand lodge.

In the Odd Fellows' home of Massachusetts there are now 20 residents from 29 different lodges. Medical attendance is rendered free by the physicians of Worcester.

Royal Arcanum.

The returns received from the councils Nov. 1 show a membership in Massachusetts of 15,003, a gain of nearly 200 since July 1.

The membership of the order at last report was 146,974, with 1,510 subordinate councils.

Under date of Jan. 1 an assessment has been levied, No. 190, which must be paid on or before Jan. 31. There are 122 deaths on the roll.

New York council has a membership crowding closely to 2,000. This is, without doubt, the strongest single subordinate of any and all orders.

The Royal Arcanumites of Jersey City are strongly opposing any change in the present method of issuing notices and collecting assessments.

B'nai B'rith.

The members of the Improved Order B'nai B'rith of Brooklyn are arranging a reception to take place at Saengerbund hall in February.

There are nearly 400 lodges in the order, 29 of which are in Germany.

Thirty thousand members are on the roll of the fraternity. Considering the number of new fraternal death benefit orders which have come into existence, with all kinds of alluring professions and the advantages of recent experience and development, this is a good and gratifying showing.

Knights and Ladies of Honor.

There were 83 deaths on the December assessment roll; net liability, $69,026.

The membership Sept. 1 was 76,700. Net increase, 192; membership, Oct. 1, 76,892. The new lodges are 3 in number.

MASONIC.

Meeting of the Pennsylvania Grand Lodge.

Bro. Robert Brown, past master of the Cumberland lodge of England and past provincial grand secretary, has in press a book entitled "A Hundred Years' History of Masonry in Massachusetts."

A movement is under way to erect a new Masonic temple at Albany.

The Eastern Star Sick Benefit association of Brooklyn is of comparative recent origin and proves of effective advantage in all respects.

Canada has a lodge with a membership of over 300. It is St. John's, No. 40, of Hamilton.

William J. McDonald, past grand high priest of the grand chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the state of New York, was recently made an honorary member of Amity chapter and a very beautiful certificate of membership presented to him.

Whenever the true spirit of Masonry really prevails, there also true brotherly love will spring up of itself in its divine strength and assemble the faithful followers of our royal craft.

David M. Holmes, grand high priest of the grand chapter of North Dakota, has appointed Frank J. Thompson grand secretary of that grand chapter, vice Thomas J. Wilder, who has permanently moved from the jurisdiction.

In Wisconsin a candidate for the consistory degree is required to have previously received the order of the Temple—so says The Masonic Tidings of Milwaukee. There are 776 members in Wisconsin consistory.

A proper use of the black ball is necessary, but an improper use of it is baseless and should be condemned. It will destroy the harmony and usefulness of the strongest lodge in the world.

R. W. John F. Collins, P. D. D. G. M. of the Fourth district, New York, has been appointed grand representative of the grand lodge of South Australia, near the grand lodge of New York.

AMERICAN LEGION OF HONOR.

Facts of Interest Concerning the Order.

The American Legion of Honor is a Massachusetts corporation. It was organized 15 years ago by Dr. Darius Wilson, the original incorporators being citizens of the commonwealth. It is known under the laws of the state as a fraternal insurance association, doing business on the lodge plan. The membership exceeds 60,000, scattered through nearly all the states and territories of the Union and also in Canada and the Hawaiian Islands.

Up to the present time there has been about 8,500 death claims paid, the aggregate amount being about $25,000,000.

The present head of the order is John M. Gwinnett of Newark, N. J., who for many years was supreme treasurer of the order. He was elected supreme commander in August last.

By the death of Past Supreme Commander Enoch S. Brown the order has suffered a severe loss.

Some of our old line insurance companies gave the A. L. of H. five years to live when it came into existence, and yet it has lived to three times their limit and grows stronger day by day.

The growth of the order in Brooklyn in the last six months has been greater than in any previous period for the same time.

The supreme council offers subordinate councils $10 for every five members and $30 for every 10 members initiated. The council can give this to the proposers.

Knights of the Macabees.

Within a twelvemonth the order in St. Louis, Mo. and Hall tents, with a combined membership of less than 100, represented the order in that city. There are now six tents, with a strength a little over 800 per cent greater than that of a year ago.

On Dec. 1, 1892, there were 96,000 Macabees at the present time there are 140,000.

There are now in Pennsylvania 304 tents, with a membership of nearly 10,000. In McKean county there are 29 tents. Bradford tent, No. 4, has nearly 400 members.
